DIGITALNC

Explore an ever-growing collection of original materials from over 360 libraries, museums, and archives across North Carolina online at DigitalNC.org:

Collections

DigitalNC can be searched or browsed by county, contributing institution, or material type. The types of materials you'll find include:

Yearbooks

Find college and high school yearbooks from across the state; browse by school, location, and year.

Images

Find photographs and postcards depicting North Carolina people and places from the 18th century to the present. Browse by subject, location and date.

Memorabilia

Find scrapbooks, newspaper clippings, ledgers, manuscripts, and other written accounts from North Carolinians past and present. Browse by format, location and date.

City Directories

Find 19th- and 20th-century city and business directories containing names and addresses of residents and business entities. Search by keyword, date, and location.

Audiovisual

Find moving images, sound recordings, and oral histories concerning North Carolina places and people. Browse by subject, interviewee, and format.

Newspapers

DigitalNC's newspaper collection is the largest collection of freely-available online newspapers in the state. Find newspapers by title, type, location, and date; browse and perform keyword searches across all digitized pages.

Also on DigitalNC.org: resources for students and teachers, exhibits, and a blog featuring new additions.

North Carolina
DIGITAL HERITAGE CENTER

DigitalNC.org is a project of the North Carolina Digital Heritage Center, a statewide digitization and digital publishing program that works with cultural heritage organizations of all sizes across North Carolina to digitize and publish historic materials online. The Center is supported by the State Library of North Carolina with funds from the Institute of Museum and Library Services (IMLS) under the provisions of the Library Services and Technology Act (LSTA), and by the UNC-Chapel Hill University Library. For more information, visit https://www.digitalnc.org/about*, email us at* mail@digitalnc.org*, or call* (919) 962-4836*.*

NCDIGITALHERITAGECENTER