For those who might consider relocation

“New York’s Message to Federal Workers: Come Work for Us

“The federal government might say ‘You’re fired,’ but here in New York, we say ‘You’re hired,’” Gov. Kathy Hochul said in a recruiting video. The state has more than 7,000 unfilled government posts.”

“As the Trump administration cuts thousands of workers and leaves many more in limbo, the governor of New York sees a hiring opportunity. Gov. Kathy Hochul on Tuesday invited federal employees to apply for public-sector jobs in New York State, starting a recruitment effort aimed at workers targeted by Elon Musk’s Department of Government Efficiency, which is a cost-cutting effort, not a department.”
