BIOGRAPHICAL INFORMATION / ORGANIZATION HISTORY

Born in 1898 in Ottawa, Illinois, Paul Egan was mayor of Aurora from 1954 to 1962. He was a controversial figure who was often at odds with his city council and police department. Two community swimming pools were built during his administration, and he rerouted Highway 30 to alleviate heavy truck traffic, congestion, and pollution in downtown Aurora. He died of cancer at St. Charles Hospital in Aurora in 1968, age 69.

SCOPE & CONTENT

This collection includes newspapers, correspondence, and the personal writings of Paul Egan from 1947 to 1965. Notably, the collection contains several copies of the Aurora Economist, a weekly newspaper self-published by Egan. It also includes court documents from cases in which Egan was the plaintiff. Folders are organized alphabetically by name.

SUBJECT TERMS
