

JANUARY 1-31

CRCPL.org/winterreading

READERS, START YOUR ENGINES! We encourage readers of all ages to challenge themselves to become reading machines this winter. From January 1-31, you're invited to "Be a Reading Machine," at CRCPL.

During this challenge, you'll earn badges for reading consistently every day for 3, 5, or 7 day streaks. How long you read is up to you, because every reader is unique, and time is just one part of your goal.

The Bingo card will also give you some ideas of fun ways to expand your reading repertoire. Fill your Bingo card and log your activities online to be entered for prizes including gift cards and library swag!
