1,000 Books Before Kindergarten

Research shows that reading books and sharing stories with your child is one of the best ways to help them develop the language skills they need to be able to learn and grow.

Keep track of all the books your child reads or that you read to your child. Include stories they hear at preschool or daycare, at the library, or at religious services.

Children often enjoy repeat visits with the same book, so you may count one book multiple times.
