Library Tree Lane Gala is Back December 8 Don't miss your chance for fun and philanthropy!

Henderson, Nev. – Get in the holiday spirit early by planning to attend the annual Library Tree Lane Gala. This anticipated fundraiser is back and better than ever! After a few years missed due to the pandemic, Friends of Henderson Libraries invites the community to join them at this special event to support Henderson Libraries.

On the evening of December 8, from 6 – 9 p.m., you will have the opportunity to stroll through the library while admiring the festively decorated trees, sampling delicious food and unique wines, and perusing the gift baskets available to win through a raffle. It's a great place to kick off the holiday season with your friends and family and get some gift shopping accomplished at the same time!

"The Friends of Henderson Libraries are thrilled to be supporting Henderson Libraries through the Library Tree Lane Gala," says Julie Buckley, Committee Chair of Library Tree Lane. "The Gala has served as the kick-off to the holiday season in Henderson for over 15 years, showcasing Henderson's wonderful libraries by bringing together patrons, city leaders, and library friends to celebrate. Henderson Libraries offers the local community access to resources, programs, and services that contribute to making Henderson a fabulous place to live, work, and play.

A familiar face around Henderson is serving as this year's Library Tree Lane Honorary Chair—Trish Nash. A nationally recognized, top-producing REALTOR®, Nash is an advocate for Henderson Libraries, the Henderson Chamber of Commerce, and a number of other community organizations.
