HOW TO PARTICIPATE

Keep track of the books you read, library services you use, and more with our Summer Reading bingo card. Pick up a bingo card beginning June 12 and join in the fun! Receive a special Summer Reading tote bag, too, while supplies last. Mark off spaces on your card, then turn them in by Sunday, August 6, to be entered into the prize drawings.

HOW TO WIN

Complete a horizontal, vertical, or diagonal line on your card. Turn your card in at the Library to be entered into a prize drawing for our grand prize. Want an extra prize? Blackout your entire card by filling every square and receive a free book! Entries must be submitted by 5 p.m. on Sunday, August 6. Prize winners will be contacted after the drawing.

Create Your Own Book and Find Your Voice

Find your own voice with our bookmaking kit. Express yourself in print by creating a unique book! Pick up a kit while supplies last. Complete the book at home or join us on Saturday, July 8, to create your book. Drop in from 2 – 3:30 p.m.

Kits available starting Monday, June 12, while supplies last.

Presented with The Art Center of Highland Park

Latin Hip Hop as a New Poetry

Music journalist Dr. Catalina Maria Johnson uses video and lyric examples to make a case for hip hop as the new poetry with a focus on Latinos in the U.S. and the Americas. Join us at the Library for this discussion and for a fun and musical afternoon.

Saturday, August 5
2 – 3 p.m.

The Fine Print Only one card per person. Anyone can join in, but prize winners must be able to pick up their prize at the Highland Park Public Library.
