

San Marco Writes: Stupendous Stories 2024

Writing Contest

FREE
for ages
5 - 18+

All Ages welcome to participate
1st Place winners in each age category will receive a prize!

Inaugural Competition

Micro Fiction is a genre of fiction that consists of stories of less than 1,000 words.

Writers are placed randomly in groups and are assigned a genre, action, and word assignment.

Three Rounds

They begin on Saturday, June 15
100 words - assigned theme

Saturday July 6
250 words assigned theme

Saturday July 27
500 words - assigned theme

Please register with a staff member by June 7th

If you prefer to have a pen name posted on your work, simply enter your pen name on the form where it asks for 'name'. Please also put your given first name on the form as well, but it will not be used for judging.

Each round, stories need to be submitted by June 24th, July 12th, and August 10th

For more information on the contest, please ask a staff member.

Results of each round will come out on July 1, July 22, and August 17

REGISTRATION: Registration for this contest closes on June 7th 2024. Forms are available in the San Marco Library.

Start Here. Go Anywhere.

San Marco Branch Library

1513 LaSalle St.
(904) 255-2665

jaxpubliclibrary.org