Providing Access to Information...for Life!

Get ready for the Kleiman Creative Writing Contest! Hosted by the Kendallville Public Library, the contest runs from January through March, culminating in an awards banquet. Open to all 4th, 5th, and 6th grade students, participants will have the opportunity to write and illustrate a storybook, non-fiction book, graphic novel, or book of poetry. Entries will be judged, and prizes will be awarded to the top books in each category. All students who participate, along with their families, will be invited to the Awards Banquet, where every writer is honored, and top students in each grade level are recognized.

The Kleiman family has generously sponsored this contest each year in memory of Isadore and Pearl Kleiman, who were avid visitors to the Kendallville Public Library. Over the years, their children have remained involved, and now the family's grandchildren are taking an active role in both the contest and its funding, continuing the tradition of supporting young writers in the community.

As we approach the 27th annual contest, we invite all past participants to share their stories and memories. Whether you participated years ago or just last year, we'd love to hear about your experience. You can share your memories by commenting on our social media or by emailing us at info@kenlib.org. Feel free to include photos of your book, your favorite moments, or anything that made the contest special for you.

For questions about the contest, please reach out to Mary Graber, Youth Services Manager, at 260-343-2022 or mgraber@kendallvillelibrary.org. You can also scan the QR for more information. Let's celebrate the past and inspire the next generation of young authors!

Read 200 Books Before Middle School for Future Success!

We challenge your child to read 200 Books Before Middle School! During the early elementary years, children are learning to read, but by third grade and beyond, they are reading to learn. That's why we created this program—to help students build the skills they need for future success while discovering books they love.

While 200 books may seem like a big goal, the program is designed to be completed over several years. Your child can pick up a journal at either library location to get started. For every 25 books they finish, they can return to the library to receive a fun reward, making it an exciting and rewarding experience.

Need help finding books? Check out our virtual shelf in the library's online catalog. Search for 200 Books Before Middle School to find curated recommendations from our staff to help your child along their reading journey!
