using Kobo Connect with CloudLibrary

Kobo Connect

Kobo Connect for CloudLibrary is available on compatible Kobo eReaders. It allows you to send eBooks borrowed from CloudLIbrary directly to your Kobo.

mobile app instructions

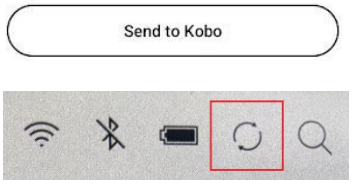

- Login to the CloudLibrary app with your library barcode number and PIN.
- Go to Account > Kobo Connect. Tap the Connect button.
- Kobo's login page will display and you can login with the email address and password for your Kobo account and tap Continue or if needed, tap Create Account.
- At the next screen, tap Approve.
- When complete, a message will display indicating your Kobo account is connected. Tap Close to go back to the CloudLibrary app.
- Go to My Books > Current and tap the desired eBook title to open the Book Details page. Tap the Send To Kobo button.
- Once the title has been sent, a message stating 'Book sent to your Kobo device' appears. Tap the OK button.
- Allow a few minutes for your CloudLibrary title to arrive to your Kobo. Users may need to tap the "Sync" button on the upper right side of the Kobo screen for the title to appear.
