

Art Exhibition Policy

As an educational and cultural institution, the North Miami Beach Public Library welcomes exhibits and displays of interest, information, and enlightenment to the community. Displays of handiwork, historical material, nature study, or any other material deemed of general interest may be exhibited. The Director shall accept or reject material offered for display based on its suitability and availability.

The Library assumes no responsibility, other than the established and basic City Liability Insurance, for the preservation or protection, and no liability for possible damage or theft of, any item displayed or exhibited. All items placed in the Library are there at the owner's risk. Any loss will be handled by Risk Management. A Hold Harmless agreement, Insurance Description, or request for a waiver must be in place prior to an exhibit taking place.

From time to time, the Library may issue a call for art for the purposes of a specific themed art exhibit or event. This call for art does not guarantee exhibition or display of any artwork submitted, which must be approved by the Director, nor does it guarantee any future exhibitions or sales of any kind. Art pieces accepted for display in limited-time Library exhibitions will be stored in the staff area after the end of the exhibit, and must be claimed by their owners in a timely manner.
