

Plano Public Library AI in Business

Presented in Partnership With

Dallas

Explore the value of AI in Business during this five-session series. All sessions are free. No technical experience is needed. Learn practical AI skills through a combination of virtual instruction and peer-led community forums

The Case for AI in Local Business – Virtual Kickoff

An introductory "reality check" for business owners. SCORE Dallas mentors debunk the mystery of AI and explain how to think of it as a tireless intern that handles repetitive tasks

Participants will explore what AI can and cannot do and identify their own readiness for adopting these tools in their business

Facilitated by Dan Ma, a Dallas-Fort Worth-based business consultant, entrepreneur, and SCORE volunteer mentor

Virtual Wed Sep 23 6:30-7:30pm

Business AI Forum: Case Studies & Live Build

Participate in a collaborative AI experience. Brief AI case studies will be shared from business use, then the full group will select one idea and build it live using Claude.ai. Bring your own device. Limited library laptops available

Who Should Come?

Local small business owners who are curious about AI but want to see it applied to real-world business situations. No technical background required
