

Carmel Clay Public Library

carmelclaylibrary.org | 317.814.3900

Anyone living in the city of Carmel can get a library card at no cost. Your card will give you access to books, movies, music, databases, and a variety of online resources. CCPL also has books and DVDs in different world languages and resources for learning English as a New Language (ENL). Learn about the free programs presented by the library at carmelclaylibrary.org/events.

City of Carmel

carmel.in.gov 317.571.2400

Hamilton County

hamiltoncounty.in.gov/31/community

317.776.9600

Child Care Answers

childcareanswers.org

317.636.5727

Get help with exploring childcare options

Indiana Disability Resource Finder

indianadisabilityresourcefinder.org

A directory of services, programs, and helpful articles for the disability community

Family Promise of Hamilton County

familypromisehamiltoncountyin.org

317.774.5196

Provides shelter, meals, and other supportive services to families experiencing homelessness

Help4HamiltonCounty

help4hamiltoncounty.org

Find local nonprofits who work with families, seniors, food assistance, medical and mental health, housing, education, and employment

Trinity Free Clinic

trinityfreeclinic.org 317.819.0772

1045 W. 146th St., Suite B, Carmel, IN 46032
(at Our Lady of Mt. Carmel Church)

Free medical, dental, and health services for uninsured, under-insured, and low-income Hamilton County residents

Resources for New Immigrants

Immigrant Welcome Center

immigrantwelcomecenter.org 317.808.2326

901 Shelby St., Suite B300, Indianapolis, IN 46203

The center connects immigrants to local resources. Among the immigrant and refugee resources are naturalization and legal assistance, English language literacy, and the Connect database (immigrantwelcomecenter.auntbertha.com). The database is available in multiple languages and provides information about documentation requirements for various programs.

Exodus Refugee Immigration

exodusrefugee.org 317.921.0836

2457 E. Washington St., Indianapolis, IN 46201

Exodus provides resettlement services to refugees and asylees. The organization arranges for housing, food and clothing, and case management. Other services include education, employment training, and health services. Eligibility for services ranges from 90 days up to 5 years after arrival in the U.S.

Archdiocese of Indianapolis Refugee and Immigrant Services (RIS)

archindy.org/cc/refugee/index.html

317.236.1400

1400 N. Meridian St., Indianapolis, IN 46202

RIS assists immigrants, refugees, and asylees with the transition to their new community. Support services fall into three categories: resettlement, rapid employment and acculturation, and legal assistance.

Indiana211

in211.communityos.org 2-1-1 or 866.211.9966

Indiana 211 is a free, confidential service that connects Hoosiers to health and human services agencies and resources right in their communities.

National Immigration Legal Services Directory – Indiana Organizations

www.immigrationadvocates.org/legaldirectory/search?state=IN

This website provides a list of legal assistance providers who help immigrants with filling out forms, applying for citizenship, and more

Additional Websites & Apps

MyCarmel app (available for iOS and Android)

Experience Carmel carmel.in.gov/our-city/experience

Good Day Carmel (website and daily email newsletter) gooddaycarmel-bepartofthepositive.com

Town Planner townplanner.com/carmel/in

Visit Hamilton County Indiana visithamiltoncounty.com/things-to-do/events