

MATERIALS DISPOSAL

Materials withdrawn from the Alexandria Library may be sold to the public. The sale of books is basically an auction process, thus the library conforms to the law governing the disposal of public property. The prices posted are a starting figure in the auction process, so if a patron offers a higher price for a book, it should be accepted.

Reference books are not usually sold to the public. Under some circumstances, a reference book may be sold with the permission of the Branch Manager. The sale price may vary as it is based on the original cost of the book.
