“A public library is the most enduring of memorials, the trustiest monument for the preservation of an event or a name or an affection; for it, and it only, is respected by wars and revolutions, and survives them.”

-Mark Twain

Purpose and Mission

The Reed Memorial Library Foundation is a non-profit organization whose purpose is to encourage donations and foster philanthropy in support of the library's capital projects.

The mission of the Library Foundation is to provide a legacy for future generations of library usage, expansion, and capital expenditures. By receiving and maintaining funds of real or personal property from community members, the Foundation supports Reed Memorial Library, located in Ravenna, Ohio.

Legacy of Support

Reed Memorial Library has enjoyed the support of the greater Ravenna community throughout its history. It has been the library's good fortune to benefit from the philanthropy of generous community members and organizations.

Small gifts from individuals and community groups as well as major contributions have allowed the Foundation to fund building expansions and capital improvements.

Beginning with namesake Cornelius Reed, major donations and bequests have supplied a large portion of the funding. Through decades of growth, significant donations have been made by the following benefactors:

Judge Cornelius A. Reed
Ravenna Junior Tuesday Club
H.W. Riddle Estate
Mae Reed Waller
Jane Jenkins
Jo Solem
Allen Aircraft
Ravenna Rotary Club
Clara Risdon Estate
